

ADD+PF+? RESIDENCY PROJECT in PEDAGOGICAL FACTORY: 2007

Invited by Stockyard Institute and AREA Chicago, 25.07-25.09.2007

<http://www.stockyardinstitute.org/PedagogicalFactory.html>

INVITE LETTER

“Seeing the contribution you have made to Finnish and European arts through mapping and storytelling workshops, we are pleased to have an opportunity to invite you participation in an upcoming exhibition project in Chicago.

It is our hope that you will travel to Chicago to develop a site-specific work involving the collecting of oral history and map making for an upcoming exhibit about education entitled “Pedagogical Factory: Strategies for an Educated City.”

Dan Tucker & Jim Duignan’s invitation in April 2007.

PEDAGOGICAL FACTORY EXHIBITION at HYDE PARK ART CENTRE

Installation, Events, Forums, Screenings, Workshops, organised by Stockyard Institute and AREA Chicago, 22.07-23.09.2007, <http://www.stockyardinstitute.org/PedagogicalFactory.html>

"SOME OF YOU I HAVE MET ALREADY, SOME NOT..

Anyhow, I have gathered your email contact as part of my own communications with the PF organisers Jim Duignan & Dan Tucker.

Forgive me, and with agreement, think of my activity as a bit of parasite organising & attention

Hello everybody,

This is #1-in-a-handful of notifications for the additional Pedagogical Factory (PF) events which I am organising as part of my own communications with the PF organisers Jim Duignan & Dan Tucker.

"I have proposed to make an additional slot in the schedule each week, as part of the publically-announced Pedagogical Factory (PF) summer schedule. This means I am seeking guides/teachers/presenters/performers who feel like they have something to share, teach, show and tell others, not yet covered in the PF programme of events. Do you have a hobby, craft, skill, profession, inspiring person, history that you think others can learn from? Do you recommend someone who has something to teach but hasn't had the chance?"

Anyhow, I have gathered your email contact as part of my own communications with the PF organisers Jim Duignan & Dan Tucker. Forgive me, and with agreement, think of my activity as a bit of parasite organising & attention..

As presumptions are exactly that,
 THIS WEEK there is intact 2 additional events (1 not-so-expected + 1 more-so-expected)..

'Add+PF+2' event

is TODAY (too late notice for some!) at Hyde Park Art Centre:

<http://notyetbe.stikipad.com/pedagogicalfactory/show/Add+PF+2>

Tuesday 14th August, 6-8pm: 'Rousseau's Garden' documentary film

Due to a delay in receiving the digital files, there will now be a preview-screening of 'Rousseau's Garden' documentary [45 mins] directed by Roope Ahola, about the cultural greenhouse 'Happihuone' I lectured about last week. There is more info about the place here: <http://www.sustainable-everyday.net/EMUDE/?p=30>

This commissioned YLE documentary is due to be debuted 25th August at 'Happihuone', and broadcast on Finnish national TV this december 2007. It focuses upon 'Happihuone' activities in summer 2005, and the ongoing issues of urban redevelopment in central Helsinki.

Mary Eliza McDowell

Social reformer
1854-1918

In 1884 Mary Eliza McDowell opened the University of Chicago South Side House, a two-story apartment building in the South Side of Chicago. In the back of the South Side neighborhood, she set up a house for working-class people. She provided the house with a kitchen, a bathroom, and a parlor. She also provided the house with a laundry room and a storage room. She also provided the house with a garden and a playground.

Mary Eliza McDowell was a social reformer. She was a member of the Chicago Board of Education. She was a member of the Chicago Board of Health. She was a member of the Chicago Board of Public Health.

During the 1890s, Chicago's South Side was a slum. It was a place where people lived in crowded, unsanitary conditions. Mary Eliza McDowell saw this and decided to do something about it. She opened the University of Chicago South Side House in 1884. It was a two-story apartment building. It had a kitchen, a bathroom, and a parlor. It also had a laundry room and a storage room. It also had a garden and a playground.

opposition to nuclear power plants, critiques of Reaganomics, and advice to young rappers. We had to censor two words of this poem, unfortunately, because of the terms he used. If you want to know more about something he makes reference to, let us know and we will look it up for you.

As always, we have appreciated your letters, and are working to help as much as we can.

Fungus Family Fun Fair

Exploring the meaning of mushrooms and some intriguing findings about the fungus
among us

And bringing up questions such as:

- Should we be more
appreciative of fungi?
- What can we learn from them?
- How can we best relate to them – integrating their specialness into our world?

Cortinariaceae

Crepidotus, Cortinarius, Dermocybe, Galerina, Gymnopilus, Hebeloma, Inocybe, Phaeocollybia, Ripartites, Rozina, Tubaria

Key Characteristics of the family

- Orange-rusty-yellow/Brown spore print
- Gills attached
- Often with cobwebby cortina
- Mycorrhizal or saprophytic

Characteristics to separate genera of Cortinariaceae

- Cortina— presence or absence
- Annulus— presence or absence
- Wood decay vs mycorrhizal
- Coloration of gills
- Smell— e.g. distinctively spicy in Gymnopilus
- radish-like in Hebeloma, green in Inocybe
